The Harvard Kennedy School Indonesia Program (HKSIP) is proud to announce that our Indonesian language class is BACK!

Whether for research purposes, an upcoming trip to Indonesia, or for personal enrichment, we hope that the classes will provide a great opportunity to explore the culture and language of the fourth most populous country in the world!

Then join us to learn Indonesian language while exploring its rich and diverse culture at the Harvard Kennedy School. No cost for the class and no online sign-up required. Lessons can be tailored to the needs of the students and drop-ins are encouraged.

NON-CREDIT INDONESIAN LANGUAGE CLASS AT THE HARVARD KENNEDY SCHOOL

Every Friday at 2:30 PM beginning on September 2nd at the Ash Center,
124 Mt. Auburn Street, Suite 200N, R226,
Cambridge, MA 02138

Class Description:

*This class is not for credit and open to all Harvard students, staff members and the general public of the Greater Boston Area. The lessons will be conducted by Ms. Aria Citra Kusuma (Aria_Kusuma@hks.harvard.edu), a Fulbright Foreign Language Teaching Assistant (FLTA). All levels of skill – beginner, intermediate, and advanced – are welcome. The class will focus on the culture of Indonesia, as well as day to day conversational skills that one might need when visiting or researching in this beautiful and diverse country. Tutorial is provided by appointment. For more information, please contact HKS Indonesia Program at hks_indonesia@hks.harvard.edu.
